Staff Regulations and Staff Rules

The General Conference,

Reaffirming the importance for the Organization of staff with a good knowledge of one of the two working languages of the Secretariat and a satisfactory knowledge of the second working language, given operational requirements,

Urges the Director-General rapidly to take all necessary measures for the effective implementation of the Staff Rules as regards the learning of the second working language of the Secretariat by staff in the professional category and above;

Invites the Director-General to report to it on this item at its 36th session.
