Item 21 of the provisional agenda

INVITATIONS TO THE SIXTH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF MINISTERS AND SENIOR OFFICIALS RESPONSIBLE FOR PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND SPORT (MINEPS VI)

SUMMARY

Following a recommendation by the Intergovernmental Committee for Physical Education and Sport (CIGEPS), to the Director-General, that preparations be made for the organization of the Sixth International Conference of Ministers and Senior Officials Responsible for Physical Education and Sport (MINEPS V) in 2017, and pursuant to Article 21 of the “Regulations for the general classification of the various categories of meetings convened by UNESCO”, the Director-General submits a list of proposed invitees to this Category II meeting to the Executive Board.

Financial implications: MINEPS VI will be funded entirely by extrabudgetary resources.

Decision proposed: paragraph 13.
BACKGROUND

1. The first International Conference of Ministers and Senior Officials Responsible for Physical Education and Sport (MINEPS) was held at UNESCO Headquarters in 1976. The forum was established to facilitate intellectual and technical exchange in the field of physical education and sport, and as an institutional mechanism to articulate a coherent international strategy in this field. Accordingly, the Conference engages governments, organizations from the United Nations system and the sports’ movement. Since the first edition, four other MINEPS Conferences have been convened by UNESCO (Moscow, Russian Federation in 1988; Punta del Este, Uruguay in 1999; Athens, Greece in 2004; Berlin, Germany in 2013).

2. The recommendations arising from these discussions have helped to build international understanding on the importance of the educational, cultural and social dimensions of physical education and sport. MINEPS has made substantial contributions to international dialogue on, and the establishment of a common platform for, the implementation of effective physical education and sport policies and programmes. For example, MINEPS I was instrumental in the development of the seminal International Charter of Physical Education and Sport (1978). This standard-setting instrument, which was amended in 1991 and thoroughly revised in 2015, remains a cornerstone of international cooperation in physical education, physical activity and sport, establishing its practice as a fundamental right for all. The creation of the Intergovernmental Committee for Physical Education and Sport (CIGEPS) was another outcome and recommendation of MINEPS I. Other key achievements of the Conference include the inception of the International Fund for the Development of Physical Education and Sport (FIDEPS), political endorsement of the Berlin Agenda for Action, adopted by the World Summit on Physical Education, and the establishment of an Observatory on Women, Sport and Physical Education, as a category 2 centre under the auspices of UNESCO.\(^1\) MINEPS IV provided a valuable forum for the negotiation of the International Convention against Doping in Sport (2005).

FOLLOW-UP TO MINEPS V

3. The Declaration of Berlin, adopted by 121 Member States that attended MINEPS V in 2013, contains a comprehensive set of action-oriented recommendations concerning the major international and national sport policy issues, including notably two new topics related to the bidding for and hosting of major sport events, as well as the manipulation of sport competitions through unregulated betting, corruption and organized crime. By 37 C/Resolution 38, the General Conference of UNESCO “invites Member States to implement [the] recommendations and appeals” contained in the Declaration of Berlin, “requests the Director-General to ensure a lead role in the follow-up process of MINEPS V”, and “encourages CIGEPS to support the follow-up process to the Declaration of Berlin and the monitoring of its implementation”.

DATE AND VENUE OF MINEPS VI

4. In accordance with Resolution CIGEPS 2015/3, the Director-General sent, in July 2015, a circular letter to all Member States of UNESCO,\(^2\) inviting them to apply to host MINEPS VI. Upon the close of the bidding process in September 2015, UNESCO had received one full proposal from the Russian Federation to host the conference in Kazan in June 2017. Following a feasibility study carried out by the Secretariat, the Director-General formally notified, on 9 February 2016, the Russian authorities of her decision to designate the Russian Federation as host country for MINEPS VI. The provisional dates for MINEPS VI are from 14 to 16 June 2017. The foreseen venue will be the Korston Hotel, Kazan.

\(^{1}\) The Centre is not yet operational.

OBJECTIVES OF MINEPS VI:

5. As recommended by CIGEPS, the Conference will concentrate on the implementation and its monitoring of the Declaration of Berlin adopted by MINEPS V and of the International Charter of Physical Education, Physical Activity and Sport, as revised by the General Conference of UNESCO at its 38th session. Accordingly, the main agenda items of MINEPS VI will be (i) the development and implementation of a common framework for the follow-up of the above Declaration and Charter, (ii) relevant good practice that could be subject of a dedicated exhibition during the Conference, as well as (iii) an action plan to foster tools and mechanisms for international information exchange and co-operation building on this framework.

6. The focus on policy implementation and assessment will mark a significant evolution with respect to previous editions of MINEPS. While this focus implies methodological and practical challenges, it also has a great potential of mobilizing support from a broad range of public and other stakeholders for which the Declaration and the Charter serve as main policy references. Effective outreach to different types of partners, including intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, sports organizations and academia, will, thus, be a critical success factor for the preparations of and follow-up to the Conference.
