5.I.B Final draft for an updated UNESCO Strategy for Action on Climate Change

The Executive Board,

1. Recalling 197 EX/Decision 45, 38 C/Resolution 21 and 200 EX/Decision 5.I.C,
2. Acknowledging that the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change is the primary international, intergovernmental forum for negotiating the global response to climate change,
3. Underlining the importance of the Paris Agreement on Climate Change and, where appropriate, the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development for guiding UNESCO's action on climate change,
4. Having examined document 201 EX/5 Part I (B),
5. Expresses its appreciation to the Director-General for the final proposal concerning the updating of the UNESCO Strategy for Action on Climate Change, taking into due consideration the entry into force of the Paris Agreement and the outcomes of the 22nd session of the Conference of the Parties (COP 22) to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC);
6. Approves the updated UNESCO Strategy for Action on Climate Change (2018-2021) as contained in the Annex to document 201 EX/5 Part I (B);
7. Requests the Director-General to present the updated UNESCO Strategy for Action on Climate Change (2018-2021) to the General Conference for endorsement at its 39th session;
8. Invites the Director-General to promote effective United Nations collaboration on climate change in conformity with recommendation 2 of the "Review of activities and resources devoted to address climate change in the United Nations system organizations" of the United Nations Joint Inspection Unit (JIU) (JIU/REP/2015/5) and, in this collaboration, to take into account the Common Core Principles for a United Nations System-wide Approach to Climate Action (CEB/2016/4) endorsed by the Chief Executives Board for Coordination, taking into account the respective roles and mandates of the relevant entities;
9. Invites all Member States to engage fully with the UNESCO Secretariat, at Headquarters and in the field offices, for the effective implementation of the UNESCO Strategy for Action on Climate Change (2018-2021), including, as appropriate, in relation to the preparation and achievement of their nationally determined contributions (NDC) under the Paris Agreement on Climate Change;
10. Encourages those Member States in a position to do so, to provide voluntary extrabudgetary financial support to enable the scaling-up of UNESCO's climate change action, with particular emphasis on Africa, small island developing States (SIDS), least developed countries (LDCs) and gender;

11. Also requests the Director-General to reflect succinctly on progress made in the implementation of the UNESCO Strategy for Action on Climate Change (2018-2021) in the statutory reports to it at its spring session in 2020.

(201 EX/SR.10)

5.I.C UNESCO's contribution to the outcome of the twenty-second session of the Conference of the Parties (COP 22) to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC)

The Executive Board,

1. Recalling 200 EX/Decision 29,
2. Having examined document 201 EX/5 Part I (C),
3. Expresses its appreciation to the Director-General for UNESCO's contributions at the 22nd session of the Conference of the Parties (COP 22) to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC);
4. Acknowledges the valuable efforts of Morocco to ensure the success of the 22nd session of the Conference of the Parties (COP 22) to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC);
5. Notes with satisfaction the effective collaboration between Morocco and UNESCO in the lead-up to and during the 22nd session of the Conference of the Parties (COP 22) to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC);
6. Recommends that the climate change challenges facing small island developing States (SIDS) and other countries be given due attention in UNESCO's efforts related to the 23rd session of the Conference of the Parties (COP 23) to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC);
7. Invites the Director-General to engage with Fiji as the convener and President of the 23rd session of the Conference of the Parties (COP 23) to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) to be hosted at the UNFCCC Secretariat in Bonn, Germany, from 6 to 17 November 2017;
8. Requests the Director-General to report on UNESCO's future contributions to the Conferences of the Parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) as part of the reporting on the implementation of the UNESCO Strategy for Action on Climate Change (2018-2021).

(201 EX/SR.10)

5.I.D Contributions of the International Hydrological Programme (IHP) to the implementation of the outcomes of COP 21 and COP 22

The Executive Board,

1. Recalling 36 C/Resolution 21 and 197 EX/Decision 45,
2. Taking note with satisfaction of resolution XXII-7 and resolution XXII-9 of the Intergovernmental Council of the International Hydrological Programme (IHP), which encourages the Director-General to pursue actions, taking advantage of the interdisciplinary mandate of the Organization, to address climate change, on the basis of the reflection, foresight and anticipation conducted by its Member States in the field of water,

3. Also recalling 200 EX/Decision 30 requesting the Director-General to report on the involvement of the International Hydrological Programme (IHP) in the 22nd session of the Conference of the Parties (COP 22) to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) and to establish a Special Account for IHP,
4. Recognizing and expressing its gratitude for the successful organization by France and Morocco of the 21st and 22nd sessions of the Conference of the Parties (COP 21 and COP 22) to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC), respectively, and for their support for the implementation of a dedicated water day at both events,
5. Acknowledging the contribution of the International Hydrological Programme (IHP) to the implementation of the outcomes of the 21st and 22nd sessions of the Conference of the Parties (COP 21 and COP 22) to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC),
6. Welcomes with satisfaction the establishment by the Director-General of a Special Account for the International Hydrological Programme (IHP), to which Member States may voluntarily contribute;
7. Invites Member States to make voluntary financial and in-kind contributions to support the UNESCO-IHP work on climate change and water resources management;
8. Requests the Director-General to report on the future contribution of the International Hydrological Programme (IHP) to the Conferences of Parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) as part of the reporting on the implementation of the UNESCO Strategy for Action on Climate Change (2018-2021).

(201 EX/SR.10)

5.I.E Report on the implementation of the Strategy for the reinforcement of UNESCO's action for the protection of culture and the promotion of cultural pluralism in the event of armed conflict

The Executive Board,

1. Recalling 38 C/Resolution 48, 199 EX/Decision 5.I.D and 200 EX/Decision 5.I.F,
2. Having examined document 201 EX/5 Part I (E),
3. Welcoming United Nations Security Council resolution 2347 (2017), which emphasized that the unlawful destruction of cultural heritage, as well as the looting and smuggling of cultural property in the event of armed conflict, notably by terrorist groups, and the attempt to deny historical roots and cultural diversity in this context can fuel and exacerbate conflict and hamper post-conflict national reconciliation, thereby undermining the security, stability, governance, social, economic and cultural development of affected States, and highlighted the importance of the Strategy for the reinforcement of UNESCO's action for the protection of culture and the promotion of cultural pluralism in the event of armed conflict,
4. Noting that United Nations Security Council resolution 2347 (2017) reflects the work initiated by UNESCO and still ongoing as regards the definition of an action plan for the implementation of the Strategy for the reinforcement of UNESCO's action for the protection of culture and the promotion of cultural pluralism in the event of armed conflict,
5. Taking note of the International Conference for the Safeguarding of Endangered Cultural Heritage in Conflict Areas, Abu Dhabi (2-3 December 2016), its Declaration, and the subsequent establishment of the International Alliance for the Protection of Heritage in Conflict Areas (ALIPH), whose objectives for the protection of heritage in danger are aligned with those of UNESCO,

6. Also taking note of the ministerial meeting dedicated to culture which took place in Florence, Italy, on 30 March 2017, and in particular its final declaration which highlighted UNESCO's role in the protection of culture and the promotion of cultural pluralism in crisis areas,
7. Welcomes the progress made in implementing the Strategy for the reinforcement of UNESCO's action for the protection of culture and the promotion of cultural pluralism in the event of armed conflict;
8. Also welcomes the opportunities provided to Member States for coordination and consultation on the Action Plan, including in the context of three intersessional meetings of Executive Board Members, two information meetings, three meetings of the Group of Friends of #Unite4Heritage, an online questionnaire and a written consultation, as well as in the framework of the governing bodies of UNESCO's culture-related normative instruments;
9. Recognizes that the Action Plan, as contained in Annex I of document 201 EX/5 Part I (E) should be understood as a work in progress, to be adjusted and enriched over time, in coordination and consultation with Member States, and within their international obligations, according to their evolving needs and the situation on the ground;
10. Takes note of and welcomes the Action Plan as a living document as well as the practical means for implementing a rapid response mechanism in full coordination with the Member States concerned, as contained in Annexes I and II of document 201 EX/5 Part I (E), respectively;
11. Notes that the activities foreseen in the Action Plan contribute directly to the strengthening of the UNESCO cultural conventions and will be conducted in strict accordance with relevant United Nations rules, with the express consent of States concerned, and in accordance with relevant international law;
12. Calls upon the Director-General to provide all necessary assistance to Member States and to the relevant United Nations departments for the implementation of United Nations Security Council resolution 2347 (2017), as appropriate;
13. Also recognizes that many activities provided for in the Action Plan are also relevant to crisis situations associated with disasters;
14. Decides, therefore, to take into consideration crisis and emergency situations associated with natural disasters in the scope of the Action Plan and to reflect this in its title, introductory note and, as appropriate, relevant activities, and recommends that the General Conference, at its 39th session, consider including natural disasters within the scope of the Strategy for the reinforcement of UNESCO's action for the protection of culture and the promotion of cultural pluralism in the event of armed conflict, as appropriate;
15. Calls on all Member States to support the implementation of the Strategy for the reinforcement of UNESCO's action for the protection of culture and the promotion of cultural pluralism in the event of armed conflict and its Action Plan, including by making additional voluntary contributions to the UNESCO Heritage Emergency Fund, as well as providing in-kind contributions as appropriate;

16. Requests the Director-General to report to it at its 202nd session on the implementation of the Strategy for the reinforcement of UNESCO's action for the protection of culture and the promotion of cultural pluralism in the event of armed conflict and its Action Plan, including its rapid response mechanism.

5.I.F Recent decisions and activities of the organizations of the United Nations system of relevance to the work of UNESCO

The Executive Board,

1. Having examined documents 201 EX/5 Part I (F) and 201 EX/5.INF,
2. Takes note of their content, and encourages the Director-General to maintain UNESCO's leadership and coordination within the United Nations system on matters that fall within its terms of reference.

(201 EX/SR.10)

5.I.G Follow-up of the situation in the Autonomous Republic of Crimea (Ukraine)¹

The Executive Board,

1. Having examined document 201 EX/5 Part I (G),
2. Takes note of the information provided therein,
3. Invites the Director-General to report to it thereon at its 202nd session.

(201 EX/SR.10)

5.I.H Report of the International Advisory Committee (IAC) on the Review Process of the Memory of the World Programme

The Executive Board,

1. Recalling 199 EX/Decision 29,
2. Having examined document 201 EX/5 Part I (H),
3. Welcomes the progress achieved by the International Advisory Committee of the Memory of the World Programme (IAC) on the review of the Programme;

¹ The Executive Board adopted this decision upon a recommendation made by the Programme and External Relations Commission (PX) following a roll-call vote: 17 votes in favour, 5 votes against and 30 abstentions:

In favour: Albania, Estonia, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Japan, Lithuania, Mexico, Netherlands, Republic of Korea, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Ukraine, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, United States of America.

Absent: Haiti, Iran (Islamic Republic of), Mauritius, Morocco, Saint Kitts and Nevis, Turkmenistan.

4. Expresses its appreciation to the national authorities of Germany for their generous contribution to this review process by hosting the experts' meeting in March 2017;
5. Takes note of the progress report by the Chair of the International Advisory Committee of the Memory of the World Programme (IAC) contained in the Annex to document 201 EX/5 Part I (H), and encourages the IAC to continue working on its Statutes and guidelines for the implementation of the Programme;
6. Requests the Director-General to present to it at its 202nd session the final report on the review of the Memory of the World Programme by its International Advisory Committee (IAC).

(201 EX/SR.9)

5.I.I Safety of Journalists and the Issue of Impunity

The Executive Board,

1. Recalling 196 EX/Decision 31,
2. Also recalling United Nations General Assembly resolution 70/162 of 17 December 2015 on the safety of journalists and the issue of impunity, and United Nations Human Rights Council resolution 33/2 of 29 September 2016 on the safety of journalists, which welcome the important work of UNESCO in this area,
3. Welcoming the adoption of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and UNESCO's role, in coordination with other United Nations agencies, in advancing Sustainable Development Goal target 16.10 on public access to information and protection of fundamental freedoms, and contributing to the monitoring, inter alia, through UNESCO's report World Trends in Freedom of Expression and Media Development,
4. Also welcoming the initiatives and commitments made by news organizations during the conference "News organizations standing up for the safety of media professionals" organized by UNESCO and held in Paris on 5 February 2016, as well as UNESCO's and Member States' implementation of the follow-up options that emerged from the conference,
5. Further welcoming the establishment of an informal group of friends of the safety of journalists at UNESCO, open to all Member States committed to the strengthening and promotion of the United Nations Plan of Action on the Safety of Journalists and the Issue of Impunity,
6. Acknowledging the specific risks faced by women journalists in the exercise of their profession, including sexual and gender-based discrimination and violence, intimidation and harassment, both online and offline, and in this regard looking forward to the United Nations Secretary-General's report on the safety of journalists and the issue of impunity, which highlights the safety of women journalists, and to which UNESCO has contributed,
7. Having examined document 201 EX/5 Part I (I),
8. Expresses its commitment to the safety of journalists and media workers, as well as those social media producers who generate a significant amount of public interest journalism;
9. Welcomes with appreciation the results achieved by UNESCO in the implementation of the United Nations Plan of Action on the Safety of Journalists and the Issue of Impunity;

10. Underlines the importance of the engagement of all stakeholders for the successful implementation of the United Nations Plan of Action on the Safety of Journalists and the Issue of Impunity, and in this regard appeals to all stakeholders to redouble their efforts;
11. Notes with appreciation the steady increase in voluntary responses by Member States concerning judicial investigations into killings of journalists, and strongly urges Member States to continue to actively provide this information to UNESCO in the context of the Director-General's report on the safety of journalists and the issue of impunity, and to develop effective monitoring mechanisms for this purpose;
12. Encourages Member States and all other media stakeholders to continue cooperating with UNESCO on issues of freedom of expression, access to information and the promotion of professionalism through capacity building and exchange of good practice;
13. Also encourages Member States, with the support of UNESCO, to continue building capacity and setting up national safety mechanisms in order to prevent, protect against, and prosecute attacks on journalists and to combat impunity;
14. Invites Member States to provide input to, and engage in, the multistakeholder consultation on strengthening the United Nations Plan of Action on the Safety of Journalists and the Issue of Impunity, organized by UNESCO and the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and to be held in Geneva on 29 June 2017;
15. Requests the Director-General to present to it at its 202nd session a progress report, containing the results and impact of UNESCO's work on the safety of journalists and proposals for how it can be strengthened, taking into account:
 - (a) UNESCO's role as contributing agency to Sustainable Development Goal indicator 16.10.1;
 - (b) the outcome of the multistakeholder consultation on strengthening the United Nations Plan of Action on the Safety of Journalists and the Issue of Impunity;
 - (c) the need for concrete measures to tackle the specific risks faced by women journalists online and offline;
 - (d) UNESCO's role in supporting capacity building in Member States, including on an institutional level.

5.II Evaluation issues

Progress report on the implementation of the Action Plan for enhancing the cooperation of UNESCO's Secretariat with National Commissions for UNESCO

The Executive Board,

1. Recalling 189 EX/Decision 16, 190 EX/Decision 37, 191 EX/Decision 33, 37 C/Resolution 97 and 196 EX/Decision 5.III,
2. Having examined documents 201 EX/5 Part II and Corr.,
3. Welcomes the efforts and progress made by both the National Commissions for UNESCO and the UNESCO Secretariat towards enhancing the Organization's cooperation with the National Commissions, and encourages the National Commissions to submit their reports in the context of the implementation of the Action Plan for enhancing the cooperation of UNESCO's Secretariat with National Commissions for UNESCO,

4. Invites Member States to continue to implement the Action Plan for enhancing the cooperation of UNESCO's Secretariat with National Commissions for UNESCO, notably by assuming their obligations and responsibilities in support of their National Commissions as laid down in the UNESCO Constitution (Article VII) and in the Charter of National Commissions for UNESCO,
5. Requests the Director-General to continue to implement the Action Plan for enhancing the cooperation of UNESCO's Secretariat with National Commissions for UNESCO, by taking the necessary measures to improve the Secretariat's cooperation with National Commissions in liaison with the Permanent Delegations, and to report to it in the statutory reports on the progress of implementation of the Action Plan.

5.III Management issues

5.III.A Sustainability of the field network

The Executive Board,

1. Recalling 199 EX/Decision 5.II.C and 200 EX/Decision 5.III.A,
2. Also recalling the recommendations contained in the External Auditor's consolidated report on field office audits (2011-2015) (199 EX/15.INF.7) as well as other related reports on the subject, including the most recent report by the External Auditor (201 EX/21),
3. Having examined document 201 EX/5 Part III (A),
4. Reiterates the importance of a responsive and sustainable field network for the implementation of UNESCO's mandate;
5. Also reiterates the need to strengthen the UNESCO field network so as to ensure that it is more consistent, efficient and better positioned to respond effectively in the implementation of the Organization's programme;
6. Recalls that by means of 199 EX/Decision 5.II.C it encouraged the Director-General to take into account the proposed basic principles of sustained decentralization:
 - (a) the optimization of local capacities, which can often bring a better grasp of the reality and culture of the field; and
 - (b) the adaptability and flexibility of field networks in order to either strengthen or reduce their presence according to the regional needs;
7. Further reiterates the United Nations' commitment to deliver as one, as expressed in the quadrennial comprehensive policy review (QCPR);
8. Recognizes that the national context of the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development calls for UNESCO's presence close to Member States, in particular in the framework of United Nations General Assembly resolution 71/243 on the quadrennial comprehensive policy review of operational activities for development of the United Nations system;

9. Takes note of the progress made in the development of tools, processes and practices aimed at the consolidation of the field network's capacities and efficiencies;
10. Welcomes the initiative to update existing host country agreements and engage in the establishment of new agreements, on a case by case basis, and calls upon host Member States to consider enhanced support for field offices in this context;
11. Also welcomes the measures taken to improve the field network in Africa, and invites the Director-General to ensure that they are fully implemented;
12. Also takes note of Recommendation No. 19 of the External Auditor in document 199 EX/15.INF.7, that each office have a clear strategic plan consistent with the UNESCO Country Programming Document (UCPD) for the country concerned, noting that for smaller offices, another form of strategic planning framework may be more appropriate;
13. Encourages the Director-General to ensure the development of country and regional strategies that use resources efficiently to meet the priority needs of the country/region, as defined through evidence-based analysis, through UNESCO's programmes;
14. Also encourages the Director-General to pursue the development and implementation of the performance management tool for field offices and to make full use of it in assessing the functioning, impact and effectiveness of field offices;
15. Further encourages the Director-General to issue and implement the matrix defining responsibilities and accountabilities for the field network in Africa in order to respond to the external audit on field network reform, and to ensure that the performance of all directors/heads of field offices is assessed and reported on by the end of each assessment cycle;
16. Further welcomes the audit of the entire field network that is planned to be carried out by the External Auditor and invites the External Auditor to share the terms of reference for this audit with the Executive Board and to include a peer review of a sample of UNESCO field offices in his audit;
17. Welcomes the proposal by the Director-General to present comprehensive analyses of the performance of the field network to the Executive Board annually at each spring session and requests that these analyses include quantified assessment of the results achieved by programmes implemented in each part of the field network;
18. Requests the Director-General to report to it at its 204th session on:
 - (a) the results of the comprehensive analysis of the relevance and performance of the field network as a whole based on the country/regional needs, the preliminary results of the new performance management tool for assessment of field offices as well as the recommendations of all related external audits and Internal Oversight Service (IOS) evaluations;
 - (b) progress achieved in updating existing host country agreements;
 - (c) quantified assessment of the implementation and success rate of the sustainability of the field network;
 - (d) proposals on how to make use of the UNESCO Transparency Portal as regards country performance assessments of field offices;

- (e) progress achieved in implementing the recommendations of the External Auditor contained in document 199 EX/15.INF.7;
19. Also requests the Director-General to report to it at its 204th session on the costed operational recommendations for increasing the efficiency of UNESCO's field presence based on the Organization's operational needs.

5.III.B Invest for efficient delivery

The Executive Board,

1. Recalling 200 EX/Decision 5.III.B,
2. Takes note of the information provided in document 201 EX/5 Part III (B) on the progress made on implementing the learning and development initiatives (Annex I) and knowledge management and information technologies initiatives (Annex II);
3. Invites the Director-General to continue to implement the initiatives referred to in paragraph 2 above;
4. Approves the additional initiatives contained in Annex III of document 201 EX/5 Part III (B) for financing from the unallocated funds under the Invest for Efficient Delivery Fund and invites the Director-General to proceed with their implementation;
5. Requests the Director-General to submit to it at its 202nd session an updated report on the implementation of the aforementioned initiatives;
6. Reiterates its appeal to Member States to consider providing voluntary contributions to increase the budget of this important investment fund.

(201 EX/SR.10)

5.III.C Review of cost-recovery policy

The Executive Board,

1. Having examined document 201 EX/5 Part III (C),
2. Recalling 200 EX/Decision 5.III.F by which it, inter alia, endorsed the principle of cost classification by function and the principle of proportionality for calculating management cost,
3. Underlining the strategic importance of a cost-recovery policy for the integrated budget framework and resource mobilization,
4. Welcomes the efforts made by the Director-General in the review of the cost-recovery policy, proposed cost classification and methodology for the calculation of the management rate;
5. Approves the cost-recovery principles as presented in document 201 EX/5 Part III (C), including the proposed average management rate of 8% to be applied to all eligible extrabudgetary funding, including revenue-generating accounts, and requests the Director-General to develop the necessary policy and guidelines, ensuring that they correspond to the needs of strategic resource mobilization;

6. Also requests the Director-General to develop and to present to it at its 202nd session the differential rate policy for the management rate such that the average rate achieved will not be lower than that necessary to cover the management costs charged to extrabudgetary projects, taking into account the need to balance the interests of existing and new donors, and that the differential rate policy clearly corresponds to the needs of strategic resource mobilization;
7. Further requests the Director-General to include an annex in future C/5 documents showing the total management cost and its allocation between regular programme and extrabudgetary funds;
8. Encourages the Director-General to continue consultation on the full retention of interest income with a view to the submission to it of a draft decision at its 202nd session;
9. Takes note that as a result of the new policy, the distribution of costs for the regular programme across budget appropriation lines will change to reflect the allocation of $3.2 million released from management costs within the regular programme budget envelope;
10. Also takes note that the residual balance of the Special Account for Management Costs (previously FITOCA), after adjustments for reserve requirement in accordance with subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of Article 3 of its Financial Regulations, would be $6.4 million as of December 2016, and that it is estimated that the residual balance would increase by around $5.7 million to a projected $12.1 million in December 2017;
11. Decides that the recommendation to the General Conference concerning the application of the projected residual balance of $12.1 million will be addressed in the decisions adopted by it at the present session on the draft budget for the 2018-2019 biennium.

5.IV Human resources issues

5.IV.A Geographical distribution and gender balance of the staff of the Secretariat

The Executive Board,

1. Recalling 197 EX/Decision 5.V.A and 199 EX/Decision 5.III.A,
2. Takes note of the information provided by the Director-General regarding the situation of the geographical distribution and the gender balance of the staff as at January 2017;
3. Notes that despite the efforts made, the geographical under-representation of Member States from all regions and some electoral groups persists and, in this regard, encourages the Director-General to take measures to achieve geographical balance at all levels, including management positions;
4. Requests the Director-General to enhance efforts towards staff capacity building and training to facilitate career development so as to improve geographical balance at higher levels taking into account the statements made by staff representatives at the present session;
5. Invites the Director-General to submit to it at its 204th session an information document on the situation of the geographical distribution of the staff of the Secretariat and on progress made in achieving geographical balance and gender parity at the senior level;

6. Also invites the Director-General to submit to the General Conference at its 39th session a full report on the geographical distribution and gender balance of the staff of the Secretariat, and on the remedial measures being undertaken to redress the imbalance;
7. Also requests the Director-General to submit to it at its 202nd session the revised human resources management strategy for 2017-2022, taking into account the discussions at its 200th and 201st sessions.

2. Having examined documents 39 C/5 (Volumes 1 and 2; Addenda and Corr.), 201 EX/15.INF, 201 EX/15.INF.2 and 201 EX/15.INF.3,
3. Decides to continue the discussions on the Draft Programme and Budget for 2018-2021 (39 C/5), and to include it as an item in the agenda at its 202nd session;
4. Also decides to establish an open-ended working group to prepare recommendations on document 39 C/5 that will be examined at its 202nd session;
5. Requests the Director-General to revise the pie charts in Volume 2 of document 39 C/5 indicating the distribution of total resources to include the “actual” resources received by region;
6. Also requests the Director-General to produce an information document comparing the contribution of each major programme to the global priorities (Global Priority Africa and Global Priority Gender Equality) in the $518 million expenditure plans for documents 38 C/5 (Approved) and 39 C/5;

7. Recommends that the General Conference at its 39th session adopt the following amendments to Volume 1 of document 39 C/5:

Major Programme I – Education

1. Insert in the preamble of the draft resolutions for the UNESCO International Institute for Educational Planning (IIEP) and UNESCO Institute for Lifelong Learning (UIL) the following paragraph, as reflected in the draft resolutions for the other category 1 institutes in education: “Recognizing the importance of maintaining the functional autonomy of the [Institute] in order to ensure that it can provide services to Member States in a proactive, flexible, effective, efficient, timely and sustainable way”;
2. Reword expected result (2) under Main Line of Action 1 to read: “Equitable and responsive TVET systems established to equip youth and adults, both women and men, with relevant skills for employment, decent work, entrepreneurship and lifelong learning”;
3. Reword expected result (3) under Main Line of Action 1 to read “Improved policies and plans and mobilization of global efforts to enhance, scale up, including through information and communication technology (ICT), and monitor the acquisition of foundational skills and lifelong learning opportunities for youth and adults, both women and men”;
4. Amend expected result (4) under Main Line of Action 1 to read: “Improved national policies and capacities to increase access for all women and men to equitable, affordable and quality-assured higher education and to advance the recognition of studies”;

Major Programme II – Natural Sciences

5. Delete the words “through IHP, MAB and IGGP” from Main Line of Action 2;

Major Programme III – Social and Human Sciences

6. Reword Main Line of Action 1 to read: “Mobilizing knowledge and embedding rights and ethics to foster and achieve social inclusion and equitable societies”;
7. Reword Main Line of Action 2 to read: “Fostering intercultural dialogue and engaging young women and men for peaceful and participatory societies”;

Major Programme V – Communication and information

8. Delete the words “and social media” from paragraph (xiii) under Strategic Objective 9;
9. Revise Main Line of Action 1 to read: “Fostering freedom of expression online and offline, promoting all aspects of the safety of journalists, advancing diversity and participation in media, and supporting independent media;
10. Under Main Line of Action 2, move the expected results so that expected result (6) becomes expected result (4), expected result (4) becomes expected result (5), and expected result (5) becomes expected result (6);

UNESCO Institute for Statistics (UIS)

11. Add a new paragraph after paragraph 1: “Welcomes the revised UIS Medium-

Term Strategy for 2017-2021”:

Coordination and monitoring of action to benefit Africa

12. Revise paragraph 1 (a) to read: “to implement during the period 2018-2021 the Operational Strategy for Priority Africa (2014-2021) ensuring the consistency and complementarity of programmes to benefit Africa, developed in accordance with the relevant decisions of the governing bodies and informed by the findings and recommendations of the 2012 Evaluation of Priority Africa by the Internal Oversight Service (IOS), in order to:
 - (i) strengthen and improve the coordination and monitoring of action to benefit Africa, in line with the Operational Strategy for Priority Africa (2014 – 2021);[...]
13. Insert the following four new subparagraphs after paragraph (vi):
 - (vii) ensure that Priority Africa flagship programmes are implemented as integral components of major programmes and feature within sectoral planning processes;
 - (viii) monitor the prioritization of Priority Africa, including its flagship programmes, at all stages of programming and at all programme levels, for both regular and extrabudgetary activities;
 - (ix) enhance the reporting on Priority Africa, its Operational Strategy (2014-2021) and its six flagship programmes, reflecting the impact and progress achieved, based on implementation by the programme sectors;
 - (x) mobilize extrabudgetary resources for the implementation of Priority Africa;
14. Reword expected result (1) to read as follows: “Impact and visibility of UNESCO’s programmes in Africa strengthened through enhanced coordination and monitoring of the Operational Strategy for Africa (2014-2021), and better understanding of Africa’s development opportunities and challenges”;

Coordination and monitoring of action to implement gender equality

15. Amend expected result (1) to read as follows: “Systematic and comprehensive contribution, to gender equality and women’s empowerment through a transformative perspective, ensured in UNESCO’s areas of expertise in pursuing its two overarching objectives of lasting peace and sustainable development with improved capacity”;
8. Also recommends to the General Conference that it request the Director-General to ensure that the resources attributed to the two global priorities in document 39 C/5 for each major programme are equal to or higher than those allocated in document 38 C/5 (Approved).

25 Collection of Member States' contributions and cashflow implications (201 EX/25; 201 EX/40)

25.I Report by the Director General on the collection of Member States' contributions

The Executive Board,

1. Having examined document 201 EX/25 Part I,
2. Recalls that the prompt payment of contributions is an obligation incumbent on Member States under the Constitution and Article 5.5 of the Financial Regulations of the Organization;
3. Expresses its gratitude to Member States that have settled their contributions, in particular those that have paid their contributions in advance, and to those that have made efforts to reduce their arrears;
4. Concerned by the financial situation of the Organization as a result of the non-payment of assessed contributions by some Member States and the severe implications thereof for the delivery of regular programme activities;
5. Urgently appeals to those Member States that are behind with the payment of their regular contributions and instalments under payment plans to pay their arrears without delay.

25.II Report by the Director General on the current situation and contingency plan

The Executive Board,

1. Having considered document 201 EX/25 Part II,
2. Endorses the proposals outlined by the Director-General for immediate measures to be taken to achieve cost reductions of a maximum of $50 million from July to December 2017 under the expenditure plan in document 38 C/5, in the event that uncertainty regarding cashflow shortages persist after May 2017;
3. Requests the Director-General to submit to it, at its 202nd session, an update on the cashflow situation and its impact on the implementation of the Programme and Budget 2016-2017 (38 C/5) as well as mitigating measures to be taken in the first six months (January to June 2018) of the 2018-2019 biennium;
4. Also requests the Director-General to submit to it at its 204th session a contingency plan, based on an assessment of potential impact of arrears from the top 25 contributors, and for a regular programme reduced by up to $145 million, and based on the decisions concerning document 39 C/5 and the prioritization exercise approved at the 37th session of the General Conference by means of 37 C/Resolution 81;
5. Calls on the General Conference to consider the possibility of another prioritization exercise catering for the worst case scenario in the present financial situation;
6. Further requests the Director-General to submit to it, at its 204th session, objectives of a proposed roadmap for continuous improvement;
7. Strongly encourages Member States to pay their assessed contributions in a timely manner, to increase their support to the Organization in the coming months through voluntary contributions, contributions to priority programmes, in-kind contributions and the flexible use of existing donations and other possible means, and recalls the need for extrabudgetary resources to serve the objectives of the Programme and Budget 2016-2017 (38 C/5);
8. Welcomes the Director-General's intention to monitor the situation closely on a quarterly basis, in order to maximize the use of UNESCO's resources and its focus on core programme priorities, and requests the Director-General to periodically inform Member States as appropriate;
9. Invites the Director-General to include information on collection rates of Member States' contributions in the UNESCO Transparency Portal.

30 Occupied Palestine⁵ (201 EX/30; 201 EX/41)

The Executive Board,

1. Having examined document 201 EX/30,
2. Recalling the provisions of the four Geneva Conventions (1949) and their additional Protocols (1977), the 1907 Hague Regulations on Land Warfare, the Hague Convention for the Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict (1954) and its additional Protocols, the Convention on the Means of Prohibiting and Preventing the Illicit

³ These dates are subject to change as the session may be extended to 19 October 2017 if necessary.

⁴ In addition to the first two ballots for the nomination of a candidate for the post of Director-General, which could take place at the end of the plenary meetings foreseen on 9 and 10 October 2017, plenary meetings might be held at 6.30 pm on the following days: Wednesday 11, Thursday 12 and Monday 16 October 2017.

⁵ The Executive Board adopted this decision upon a recommendation made by the Programme and External Relations Commission (PX) following a roll-call vote: 22 votes in favour, 10 votes against and 23 abstentions:

In favour: Algeria, Bangladesh, Brazil, Chad, China, Egypt, Iran (Islamic Republic of), Lebanon, Malaysia, Mauritius, Morocco, Nicaragua, Nigeria, Oman, Pakistan, Qatar, Russian Federation, Senegal, South Africa, Sudan, Sweden, Viet Nam.

Against: Germany, Greece, Italy, Lithuania, Netherlands, Paraguay, Togo, Ukraine, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, United States of America.

Abstentions: Albania, Argentina, Cameroon, Côte d'Ivoire, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Estonia, France, Ghana, Guinea, Haiti, India, Japan, Kenya, Mexico, Mozambique, Republic of Korea, Saint Kitts and Nevis, Slovenia, Spain, Sri Lanka, Trinidad and Tobago, Uganda.

Absent: Nepal, Serbia, Turkmenistan.

Import, Export and Transfer of Ownership of Cultural Property (1970) and the Convention for the Protection of the World Cultural and Natural Heritage (1972), the inscription of the Old City of Jerusalem and its Walls at the request of Jordan on the World Heritage List (1981) and on the List of World Heritage in Danger (1982), and the recommendations, resolutions and decisions of UNESCO on the protection of cultural heritage, as well as resolutions and decisions of UNESCO relating to Jerusalem, also recalling previous UNESCO decisions relating to the reconstruction and development of Gaza as well as UNESCO decisions on the two Palestinian sites in Al-Khalil/Hebron and in Bethlehem,

3. Affirming that nothing in the current decision, which aims, inter alia, at the safeguarding of the cultural heritage of Palestine and the distinctive character of East Jerusalem, shall in any way affect the relevant Security Council and United Nations resolutions and decisions on the legal status of Palestine and Jerusalem, including United Nations Security Council resolution 2334 (2016),

30.I Jerusalem

4. Reaffirming the importance of the Old City of Jerusalem and its Walls for the three monotheistic religions,
5. Bearing in mind that all legislative and administrative measures and actions taken by Israel, the occupying Power, which have altered or purport to alter the character and status of the Holy City of Jerusalem, and in particular the “basic law” on Jerusalem, are null and void and must be rescinded forthwith,
6. Recalling the 11 decisions of the Executive Board: 185 EX/Decision 14, 187 EX/Decision 11, 189 EX/Decision 8, 190 EX/Decision 13, 192 EX/Decision 11, 194 EX/Decision 5.I.D, 195 EX/Decision 9, 196 EX/Decision 26, 197 EX/Decision 32, 199 EX/Dec.19.1 and 200 EX/Decision 25, and the seven World Heritage Committee decisions: 34 COM/7A.20, 35 COM/7A.22, 36 COM/7A.23, 37 COM/7A.26, 38 COM/7A.4, 39 COM/7A.27 and 40 COM/7A.13,
7. Regrets the failure of the Israeli occupying authorities to cease the persistent excavations, tunnelling, works and projects in East Jerusalem, particularly in and around the Old City of Jerusalem, which are illegal under international law and reiterates its request to Israel, the occupying Power, to prohibit all violations which are not in conformity with the provisions of the relevant UNESCO conventions, resolutions and decisions;
8. Also regrets the Israeli refusal to implement the UNESCO request to the Director-General to appoint a permanent representative to be stationed in East Jerusalem to report on a regular basis about all aspects covering the fields of competence of UNESCO in East Jerusalem, and reiterates its request to the Director-General to appoint, as soon as possible, the above-mentioned representative;
9. Stresses again the urgent need to implement the UNESCO reactive monitoring mission to the Old City of Jerusalem and its Walls, and invites the Director-General and the World Heritage Centre to exert all possible efforts, in line with their mandates and in conformity with the provisions of the relevant UNESCO conventions, decisions and resolutions, to ensure the prompt implementation of the mission and, in case of non-implementation, to propose possible effective measures to ensure its implementation;

30.II Reconstruction and development of Gaza

10. Deplores the military confrontations in and around the Gaza Strip and the civilian casualties caused, as well as the continuous negative impact in the fields of competence of UNESCO, the attacks on schools and other educational and cultural facilities, including breaches of the inviolability of United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA) schools;

11. Also deplores the continuous Israeli closure of the Gaza Strip, which harmfully affects the free and sustained movement of personnel, students and humanitarian relief items and requests Israel to immediately ease this closure;
12. Thanks the Director-General for initiatives that have already been implemented in Gaza in the fields of education, culture and youth and for the safety of media professionals, calls upon her to continue her active involvement in the reconstruction of Gaza's damaged educational and cultural components and reiterates, in this regard, its request to her to upgrade the UNESCO Antenna in Gaza and to organize, as soon as possible, an information meeting on the current situation in Gaza in the fields of competence of UNESCO and on the outcome of the projects conducted by UNESCO;

30.III The two Palestinian sites of Al-Haram Al-Ibrahimi/Tomb of the Patriarchs in Al-Khalil/Hebron and the Bilal Ibn Rabah Mosque/Rachel's Tomb in Bethlehem

13. Reaffirms that the two concerned sites located in Al-Khalil/Hebron and in Bethlehem are an integral part of the Occupied Palestinian Territory, and shares the conviction affirmed by the international community that the two sites are of religious significance for Judaism, Christianity and Islam;
14. Deplores the ongoing Israeli excavations, works, construction of private roads for settlers and of a Wall inside the Old City of Al-Khalil/Hebron which are illegal under international law and harmfully affect the authenticity and integrity of the site, and the subsequent denial of freedom of movement and freedom of access to places of worship and asks Israel, the occupying Power, to end all violations which are not in conformity with the provisions of relevant UNESCO conventions, resolutions and decisions;
15. Regrets the visual impact of the Wall on the site of Bilal Ibn Rabah Mosque/Rachel's Tomb in Bethlehem as well as the strict ban on access of Palestinian Christian and Muslim worshippers to the site, and demands that the Israeli authorities restore the original character of the landscape around the site and lift the ban on access to it;

30.IV

16. Decides to include these matters under an item entitled "Occupied Palestine" in the agenda at its 202nd session, and invites the Director-General to submit to it a progress report thereon.

(201 EX/SR.10)

31 Implementation of 38 C/Resolution 72 and 200 EX/Decision 26 concerning educational and cultural institutions in the Occupied Arab territories⁶ (201 EX/31; 201 EX/41)

The Executive Board,

1. Recalling 185 EX/Decision 36 and 38 C/Resolution 72 as well as Article 26 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights with regard to the right to education, Articles 24,

⁶ The Executive Board adopted this decision upon a recommendation made by the Programme and External Relations Commission (PX) following a roll-call vote: 38 votes in favour, 1 vote against and 18 abstentions:

In favour: Albania, Algeria, Argentina, Bangladesh, Brazil, Chad, China, Egypt, Estonia, France, Germany, Greece, Iran (Islamic Republic of), Italy, Japan, Lebanon, Lithuania, Malaysia, Mauritius, Mexico, Morocco, Netherlands, Nicaragua, Nigeria, Oman, Pakistan, Qatar, Republic of Korea, Russian Federation, Senegal, Serbia, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain, Sudan, Sweden, Ukraine, Viet Nam.

50 and 94 of the Fourth Geneva Convention with regard to the denial of the right of children to education, as well as the Hague Convention (1954) and its Protocols and the Convention for the Protection of the World Cultural and Natural Heritage (1972), also recalling the International Court of Justice's Advisory Opinion of 9 July 2004 on the "Legal Consequences of the Construction of a Wall in the Occupied Palestinian Territory",

2. Having examined documents 201 EX/31 and 201 EX/30,
3. Committed to the safeguarding of monuments, works of art, manuscripts, books and other historical and cultural properties to be protected in the event of conflict, as well as the safeguarding of schools and all educational facilities,

31.I Occupied Palestine

4. Deplores the damaging impact of the military confrontations on the fields of competence of UNESCO in the Gaza Strip, particularly education and cultural institutions and calls for the ending of measures that prevent the reconstruction and/or rehabilitation of schools in the Gaza Strip;
5. Deeply concerned by the Israeli army violations against Palestinian universities and schools, demands that the Israeli authorities immediately halt actions that violate UNESCO principles and the provisions of the world declaration for education for all (1990) and reaffirms, in this regard, that schools, universities and cultural heritage sites enjoy special protection and should not be targeted;
6. Expresses its growing concern about the harmful impact of the Wall on the activities of educational and cultural institutions, and demands, in this regard, that Israel, the occupying Power, cease all of its settlement activities, including the construction of the Wall and other measures aimed at altering the character, status and demographic composition of the Occupied Palestinian territory, including in and around East Jerusalem and the Cremisan Monastery in the Bethlehem Governorate, which harm the social fabric of Palestinian society and prevent Palestinian school children and students from exercising fully their right to education;
7. Notes with deep concern the Israeli censorship of the Palestinian curricula of schools and universities in East Jerusalem, and urges the Israeli authorities to immediately halt this censorship;
8. Expresses its appreciation for the substantial contributions of all concerned Member States and intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations to UNESCO's action in Palestine as well as for building of schools for Palestinian children such as the school of Tana, near Nablus and the two schools in Khan Al-Ahmar and in Abu Nuwar near Jerusalem, and appeals to them to continue assisting UNESCO in this endeavour;
9. Deeply regrets the destruction by the Israeli authorities of schools, including the school in Abu Nuwar and the school in Tana, and calls on the Israeli authorities to halt plans for further demolition, including of the school in Khan Al-Ahmar;

Against: United States of America.

Abstentions: Cameroon, Côte d'Ivoire, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Ghana, Guinea, Haiti, India, Kenya, Mozambique, Nepal, Paraguay, Saint Kitts and Nevis, Sri Lanka, Togo, Trinidad and Tobago, Uganda, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

Absent: Turkmenistan.

10. Thanks the Director-General for the results that have been obtained in favour of the protection, reconstruction, rehabilitation and restoration of the Palestinian archaeological sites and cultural heritage, invites her to reinforce her action in this regard and to strengthen UNESCO's assistance to the Palestinian educational and cultural institutions in order to address the needs for capacity building in UNESCO's fields of competence by, inter alia, expanding the financial assistance programme for Palestinian students and school children, and requests her to organize, as soon as possible, the ninth meeting of the Joint UNESCO-Palestine Committee;

31.II Occupied Syrian Golan

11. Also invites the Director-General:
- (a) to continue the efforts she is making to preserve the human, social and cultural fabric of the occupied Syrian Golan, in accordance with the relevant provisions of its decisions;
 - (b) to undertake efforts to offer appropriate curricula, and to provide more grants and adequate assistance to the educational and cultural institutions of the occupied Syrian Golan;
 - (c) to dispatch an expert to assess and evaluate the needs of the educational and cultural institutions in the occupied Syrian Golan and report to her before the 202nd session of the Executive Board;

31.III

12. Decides to include this item in the agenda of the Executive Board at its 202nd session, and invites the Director-General to submit to it a progress report thereon.

ADDITIONAL ITEMS

32 The importance of sound in today's world: promoting best practices (201 EX/32 and Corr. (English, Spanish, Russian, Arabic and Chinese only); 201 EX/DG.INF; 201 EX/41)

The Executive Board,

1. Having examined documents 201 EX/32 and Corr.,
2. Convinced that the sound environment is so important that it shapes our personal and collective behaviour;
3. Noting that human beings and other living organisms are both dependent on and agents of a sound environment that makes increasing use of sound and audiovisual equipment at increasingly high and continuous harmful noise levels, and that this matter has already been addressed by international institutions such as the International Telecommunication Union (ITU) and World Health Organization (WHO) and the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP), as well as under the United Nations Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD),
4. Also noting that throughout the world, the densification of communities and the intensification of urbanization, which lead to an increase in the noise level, make the soundscape a matter of concern for professionals and citizens who are actively transforming their environment and that of other organisms,

5. Further noting that “dynamic range compression” has accustomed us to hearing voices and music without nuance,
6. Aware that in a context of widespread audiovisual and multimedia access, sound is an aspect that determines visual perception and perceived final quality,
7. Considering that musical expression, by voice and by musical instrument, favours listening to one’s self and to others and helps develop and maintain cognitive performance at all stages of life,
8. Also considering that harmful noise of human origin causes stress with negative consequences on the ecosystem and on the immune system of humans and animals,
9. Noting that the sound environment, health, sound recording, reproduction and conservation technology, the relation between image and sound, and musical and sound expression are the five important fields of activity affected by sound-related issues,
10. Recalling the Director-General’s support for the Week of Sound Charter, promulgated at the opening event of the thirteenth Week of Sound in 2016,
11. Also noting that the different sectors of UNESCO, education, natural sciences, social and human sciences, culture and communication and information, are concerned by sound-related issues,
12. Expressing the hope that UNESCO might work towards an understanding of sound-related issues at the international level,
13. Encourages Member States to foster the mobilization of extrabudgetary contributions to enable UNESCO, in association with the National Commissions and the UNESCO Associated Schools Project Network (ASPnet), to promote best practices relating to sound in all areas of life from early childhood;
14. Expresses its satisfaction at seeing the Director-General promote initiatives inspired in particular by the Week of Sound;
15. Requests the Director-General to include this item in the agenda of the 39th session of the General Conference;
16. Recommends that the General Conference adopt, at its 39th session, a resolution on the importance of sound in today’s world, so as to promote best practices, in the spirit of the present decision.

33 UNESCO’s participation in the Foundation Board of the International Alliance for the Protection of Heritage in Conflict Areas (ALIPH) (201 EX/33; 201 EX/DG.INF; 201 EX/42)

The Executive Board,

1. Noting the steady increase in unlawful deliberate attacks on cultural heritage in territories beset by armed conflict and terrorism,
2. Recalling that culture and heritage constitute the history and identity of individuals and peoples, and play an essential role in the resilience of populations affected by conflict,
3. Also recalling that cultural heritage, in its rich diversity, is a factor for dialogue and rapprochement and that by targeting it, extremists destroy a common good of humanity,

4. Further recalling the Convention for the Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict (1954) and its two Protocols (1954 and 1999), the Convention on the Means of Prohibiting and Preventing the Illicit Import, Export and Transfer of Ownership of Cultural Property (1970), the Convention for the Protection of the World Cultural and Natural Heritage (1972), and the Strategy for reinforcing UNESCO's action for the protection of culture and the promotion of cultural pluralism in the event of armed conflict, adopted by the General Conference in 38 C/Resolution 48,
5. Affirming that the sovereignty of Member States whose cultural heritage is in danger must be respected at all times, in particular considering the use of UNESCO's rapid response mechanisms and the use of safe havens for cultural properties in danger, by agreeing that priority should be given to those safe havens located in affected Member States,
6. Welcoming, in particular, United Nations Security Council resolution 2347 (2017) concerning the protection of endangered cultural heritage,
7. Having taken cognizance of the context in which the International Alliance for the Protection of Heritage in Conflict Areas (ALIPH) was established, following the International Conference for the Safeguarding of Cultural Heritage in Conflict Areas (Abu Dhabi, 2016), with the aim of protecting endangered heritage,
8. Highlights the importance of UNESCO's participation in the Foundation Board of the International Alliance for the Protection of Heritage in Conflict Areas (ALIPH), in order to contribute its expertise as a non-voting member, in accordance with its wishes;
9. Having also taken cognizance of the draft revised Bylaws of the International Alliance for the Protection of Heritage in Conflict Areas (ALIPH), which aim to grant UNESCO the status of non-voting member of the Foundation Board,
10. Convinced of the validity of UNESCO's presence on the Foundation Board of the International Alliance for the Protection of Heritage in Conflict Areas (ALIPH), whose objectives for the endangered heritage coincide with those of UNESCO, particularly the objectives set by its Strategy for reinforcing UNESCO's action for the protection of culture and the promotion of cultural pluralism in the event of armed conflict, adopted by the General Conference in 38 C/Resolution 48, including its action plan;
11. Authorizes the Director-General of UNESCO to appoint a representative to sit on the Foundation Board of the International Alliance for the Protection of Heritage in Conflict Areas (ALIPH) as a non-voting member;
12. Requests the Director-General to submit to it at its 202nd session the revised Bylaws of the International Alliance for the Protection of Heritage in Conflict Areas (ALIPH);
13. Also requests the Director-General to submit to it an annual report on the activities of the UNESCO representative within the International Alliance for the Protection of Heritage in Conflict Areas (ALIPH).

(201 EX/SR.10)

34 Plan of action to strengthen UNESCO's cooperation: Together for Haiti (201 EX/34; 201 EX/DG.INF; 201 EX/ 41)

The Executive Board,

1. Having examined document 201 EX/34,

2. Underlining the special status accorded by UNESCO to small island developing States (SIDS) as a priority group in UNESCO's Medium-Term Strategy for 2014-2021 (37 C/4), and the fact that Haiti belongs to the category of least developed countries (LDCs), a priority group for UNESCO,
3. Recalling paragraphs 16, 18 and 19 (overarching objectives) in the Medium-Term Strategy for 2014-2021 (37 C/4) as well as paragraph 97 concerning UNESCO's response to post-conflict and post-disaster (PCPD) situations,
4. Considering the document assessing the damage, loss and needs resulting from Hurricane Matthew in which Haiti presents its sectoral strategies and priority needs in order to move rapidly towards long-term recovery,
5. Thanks the Director-General for her efforts in overseeing and facilitating UNESCO's contribution to the reconstruction and building of capacities for the management of disaster-related and climate-related risks through technical and vocational education and training (TVET), as well as the implementation of the methodology "Visual Inspection for defining the Safety Upgrading Strategies" (VISUS) to assess the vulnerabilities of school infrastructures, and in the framework of biosphere reserves under the Programme on Man and the Biosphere (MAB);
6. Expresses its appreciation for the voluntary contributions of Chile, Spain and the European Union towards the financing of UNESCO's action in favour of the Haitian people;
7. Invites the Director-General to continue the building of capacities under a plan of action entitled "Together for Haiti" for projects identified by the Government of Haiti concerning:
 - (a) action on damaged school infrastructure, from a post-disaster perspective;
 - (b) technical and vocational education and training (TVET);
 - (c) reducing the vulnerability of lands and peoples by protecting the environment and restoring fragile ecosystems affected by Hurricane Matthew, in particular in biosphere reserves;
8. Requests the Director-General to support efforts to implement and follow-up the plan of action "Together for Haiti" and to mobilize partners and extrabudgetary resources for the effective implementation of activities;
9. Also invites the Director-General to report to it at its 204th session on the implementation of this decision.

(201 EX/SR.10)

35 Combating school violence and bullying: UNESCO's action (201 EX/35; 201 EX/DG.INF; 201 EX/ 41)

The Executive Board,

1. Recalling the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1948) and the Convention on the Rights of the Child (1989),
2. Also recalling UNESCO conventions and recommendations in the field of education, namely the Convention against Discrimination in Education (1960) and the Recommendation concerning Education for International Understanding, Cooperation and Peace and Education relating to Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (1974),

3. Further recalling 196 EX/Decision 30 entitled “Learning without fear: preventing and combating school-related gender-based violence”,
4. Taking note of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, by which Member States established the goal of ending abuse, exploitation, trafficking and all forms of violence against and torture of children,
5. Recalling the data and recommendations contained in the report of the United Nations Secretary-General entitled “Protecting children from bullying” (A/71/213), submitted in response to the request of the United Nations General Assembly in its resolution 69/158, and presented to it at its 71st session,
6. Also recalling United Nations General Assembly resolution 71/176, which requests the United Nations Secretary-General to submit to it, at its 73rd session, a report on the implementation of that resolution,
7. Also taking note of resolution 25/10 adopted by the United Nations Human Rights Council entitled “Ending violence against children: a global call to make the invisible visible”,
8. Noting that violence in schools may take the form of physical, psychological and sexual violence and that bullying is a specific and very widespread form of school violence, and its perpetrators and victims include students, teachers and other school staff,
9. Expressing concern about the global scale of school violence and bullying and the negative impact such violence and bullying can have on the academic performance, as well as the physical and mental health and emotional well-being of students,
10. Emphasizing that school violence and bullying can create a climate of anxiety, fear and insecurity that is incompatible with learning, and has harmful repercussions on the school environment as a whole,
11. Also emphasizing the importance of a respectful and inclusive school environment,
12. Raising awareness of new types of bullying in schools, including through new communication technologies, in particular cyberbullying by means of social media, blogs, emails and mobile telephones,
13. Recognizing the importance of involving parents and parent-teacher organizations in combating school violence and bullying,
14. Drawing the attention of Member States to the often serious and detrimental consequences of school violence and bullying that may lead to dropping out of school, desocialization, somatization and self-destructive and even suicidal behaviour,
15. Further recalling the UNESCO report entitled “Global Status Report on School Violence and Bullying” (2017) and the publication by UNESCO of “Global Guidance on Addressing School-Related Gender-Based Violence” (2016),
16. Noting with concern that, according to the abovementioned report, it is estimated that 246 million children and adolescents experience school violence and bullying in some form every year,
17. Further emphasizing that in order to promote a culture of peace, a respectful and inclusive school environment and global citizenship education are essential tools in preventing and combating school violence and bullying,

18. Further taking note of the organization by UNESCO of a number of international meetings concerning school violence and bullying, in particular the International Symposium on School Violence and Bullying: From Evidence to Action, held in Seoul (Republic of Korea) from 17 to 19 January 2017, in conjunction with the Institute of School Violence Prevention at Ewha Womans University of Seoul (Republic of Korea),
19. Welcomes the establishment by UNESCO of a platform to collect data regarding school violence and bullying, which will include the following elements: (a) a webpage; (b) a biennial world report; and (c) a space for exchange to improve data-gathering tools;
20. Condemns school violence and bullying;
21. Encourages UNESCO, within the framework of the platform to collect data regarding school violence and bullying, to support Member States, upon their request, in combating school violence and bullying and promoting the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, including by pursuing partnerships with the Office of the Special Representative of the United Nations Secretary-General on Violence against Children, the World Health Organization (WHO), the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) and other key actors in the field;
22. Invites UNESCO to carry out other actions, as appropriate and in accordance with the resources made available to the Organization, to support Member States upon their request, to take steps towards preventing and combating school violence and bullying at the national level, and which may include:
 - (a) making recommendations to improve the legislative and regulatory framework at the national level;
 - (b) introducing intersectoral strategies that promote the participation of the entire education community, and in particular children;
 - (c) encouraging schools to put students at the centre of all activities, so that their participation could help to effectively combat school violence and bullying;
 - (d) strengthening the capacity and training of teachers and other education staff members so as to prevent and combat school violence and bullying;
 - (e) introducing effective support systems as well as mechanisms to report cases of school violence and bullying;
 - (f) improving the collection of data and evidence of effective practices;
 - (g) identifying causes/roots of school violence and bullying and focusing on activities aiming to eliminate them;
23. Also invites UNESCO, on the one hand, to encourage partnerships and exchanges of experience between Member States, so as to contribute to the implementation of effective approaches to preventing and combating school violence and bullying and, on the other hand, to promote the consistency and coordination of its actions with other United Nations agencies;
24. Encourages the mobilization of extrabudgetary resources in support of activities aiming to prevent and combat school violence and bullying;
25. Requests the Director-General to inform Member States, at its 205th session, of the efforts made by UNESCO to support them in preventing and combating school violence and bullying.

36 Twenty-fifth anniversary of the UNITWIN/UNESCO Chairs Programme: progress and prospects (201 EX/36; 201 EX/DG.INF; 201 EX/ 41)

The Executive Board,

1. Having examined document 201 EX/36,
2. Recalling the strategic approach to the UNITWIN/UNESCO Chairs Programme, set out in document 176 EX/10,
3. Looking forward to the revised Guidelines and Procedures for the UNITWIN/UNESCO Chairs Programme,
4. Taking into account the importance of the effective participation of UNESCO in implementing the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development,
5. Noting with satisfaction the effectiveness of the UNITWIN/UNESCO Chairs Programme over the 25-year period of its existence and the transformation of the UNESCO Chairs into centres of excellence,
6. Welcoming the further strengthening and development of the UNITWIN/UNESCO Chairs Programme,
7. Expresses its gratitude to the Director-General and Secretariat of UNESCO for the attention paid to the development of the University Twinning and Networking Programme (UNITWIN) in UNESCO's Member States;
8. Underscores the usefulness of actively involving UNESCO Chair experts in research, analytical surveys, the design of international events and preparation of documents on the priority orientations of UNESCO's activity in close cooperation with the Organization's Secretariat and National Commissions, and the role that National Commissions play in the process of establishing and monitoring UNESCO Chairs;
9. Welcomes the strengthening of cooperation between UNESCO Chairs and the education-related category 1 institutes, regardless of region: UNESCO Institute for Information Technologies in Education (IITE), UNESCO International Bureau of Education (IBE), UNESCO International Institute for Educational Planning (IIEP), UNESCO Institute for Lifelong Learning (UIL), UNESCO International Institute for Capacity-Building in Africa (IICBA), UNESCO International Institute for Higher Education in Latin America and the Caribbean (IESALC), and Mahatma Gandhi Institute of Education for Peace and Sustainable Development (MGIEP);
10. Encourages category 1 institutes and category 2 institutes and centres, field offices, National Commissions and the Secretariat, within the framework of their competences, to cooperate with and provide assistance to UNESCO Chairs in seeking partners through the University Twinning and Networking Programme (UNITWIN) so as to develop triangular North-South-South cooperation;
11. Recommends strengthening interaction between UNESCO's education networks: University Twinning and Networking Programme (UNITWIN), UNESCO Associated Schools (ASPnet) and UNESCO International Centre for Technical and Vocational Education and Training (UNEVOC) centres by means of developing joint flagship projects;

12. Requests the Director-General to increase the attention paid by UNESCO's programme sectors to coordinating and supporting the activities of Chairs so as to achieve the tasks associated with attaining the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) by 2030, and to submit to the General Conference, at its 39th session, a report on the activity of the University Twinning and Networking Programme (UNITWIN) in connection with its 25th anniversary.

37 World Humanities Conference: Challenges and Responsibilities for a Planet in Transition (201 EX/37 and Corr.; 201 EX/DG.INF; 201 EX/ 41)

The Executive Board,

1. Having examined document 201 EX/37 and Corr.,
2. Affirming the importance of discussing the specific role of the humanities, in relation to the social sciences and the natural sciences, in a twenty-first century characterized by cultural diversity, the failure of different forms of one-track thinking, and the need to reintroduce the medium- and long-term dimension into everyday reasoning,
3. Recalling that the humanities have the historic objective of combating xenophobia, intolerance and fundamentalism by enhancing the understanding of the increasing complexity of our world,
4. Recognizing the necessity to promote spaces for intellectual and political exchanges on the role of the humanities in a world in transition, in order to promote the intellectual and moral solidarity of humanity,
5. Welcoming the initiative of the International Council for Philosophy and Human Sciences (CIPSH), which spearheaded the World Humanities Conference, and the efforts of CIPSH to co-organize the Conference with UNESCO,
6. Referring to the comprehensive strategy for the Management of Social Transformations (MOST) Programme, endorsed in 199 EX/Decision 7, and whose thematic priorities are reflected in the major themes of the World Humanities Conference,
7. Taking note of the Action Plan to implement the comprehensive strategy for the Management of Social Transformations (MOST) Programme, as presented in document 201 EX/8, and in particular the role of the humanities therein,
8. Also taking note of the works of the World Humanities Forum, which has been co-organized by the Republic of Korea and UNESCO since 2011,
9. Welcomes the commitment of Mali, the Republic of Korea, Brazil, China, Lebanon, Jamaica and Portugal to host regional preparatory meetings;
10. Expresses thanks to Belgium, and in particular to the University, City and Province of Liège, for hosting the World Humanities Conference and for the financial and institutional efforts made in connection with it;
11. Encourages Member States to offer their financial support to the organization of the World Humanities Conference, in the form of contributions to the Foundation for the World Humanities Conference or assistance to the travel and accommodation of their nationals participating in the Conference;
